We all have to start somewhere, with God. The first in a series of eight Sunday School leader's guide books, with 24 complete Sunday School lessons for children between the ages of 7-12. Through this manual we teach children through the African experience, to start a relationship with God, from the beginning of creation.

Character studies of Adam, Noah, Job and Abraham from the Old Testament, reflects the African experience of beginning to walk with God. The leader's guide books complement the Look, Listen & Live Picture books.
